

Advent Hope Advent Joy

I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. (John 15:11)

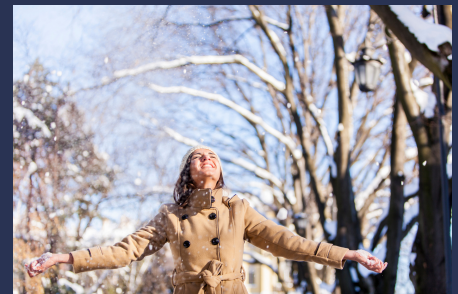

There can be no joy if there is no hope. Hope fuels joy. Advent is a time to open our hearts to joy. A time to pound on the door of our heart and prepare it as if it were a stable ready to birth something new – dusting away the cobwebs of anger and resentment, scraping away the mud of any bitterness or pride we might have accumulated, sweep away any disagreeable habit we may have begun or not let go of. Shut out the darkness, turn on the lights of charity, peace and joy. Join Sister Mary Kay as she guides us through an Advent morning filled with prayer, storytelling, engaging conversation and reflection.

Sister Mary Kay McDonald, MSBT is the Hispanic Outreach and Retreat Coordinator for the Mother Boniface Spirituality Center. She graduated from St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia with a Bachelor's Degree in Biology and has a Master's Degree in Sacred Scripture from St. Charles Borromeo Seminary.

The Mother Boniface Spirituality Center, an outreach of the Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity, offers programs and retreats to spread the knowledge and love of Jesus. As a welcoming facility, we seek to strengthen and encourage Catholics who are today's missionary disciples and to reach those who are spiritually abandoned and wounded by our culture.
